

2° NEUROCIENCIAS en el DERECHO PENAL

En el marco del proyecto de investigación PROINCE D047 "Las Neurociencias y su receptividad en el Proceso Penal, en el Derecho Penal Juvenil y en la Ejecución de la Pena. Encuadre Ético de sus incidencias" radicado en el Departamento de Derecho y Ciencia Política y dirigido por el profesor Dr. José Ángel Marinaro.

Inscripciones extensionderecho@unlam.edu.ar Title: 'Second Conference on Neuroscience in Criminal Law'

Location: 1903 Florencio Varela street, San Justo city, Buenos Aires province, Argentina (zip code: B1754). National University of 'La Matanza', room: 'Auditorio Grande'

Date: November 5 and 6, 2019, from 5 to 8:30 pm

Contents: Neurolaw: epistemic advances; Neurorights: free will as a paradigm of its regulatory difficulty; The theory of the interpreter: implantation of false memories and their possible implications in the Neurolaw; Neurotechnologies and possible effects on Human Rights; Imputability and forensic psychopathology: a perspective from Neurosciences; Decision making in minors; Neuropredisction in the Execution of the Penalty

Speakers: Dr. José Ángel Marinaro (Universidad Nacional de La Matanza), Dr. José Manuel Muñoz Ortega (Universidad Europea de Valencia, España), Dr. Eric García López (Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México), Dr. Daniel Silva (Universidad de Buenos Aires, Facultad de Medicina), Dr. Ezequiel Mercurio (Universidad de Buenos Aires, Facultad de Medicina), Nicolás Ezequiel Llamas (Universidad Nacional de La Matanza), Dr. Guillermo Scaglione (Universidad Nacional de La Matanza)

Registration: extensionderecho@unlam.edu.ar

The activity is free of charge, but prior registration is required.

This conference is held within the framework of the research proyecto PROINCE D047 'Neurosciences and their receptivity in the Criminal Process, in the Juvenile Criminal Law and in the Execution of the Penalty. Ethical framework of their impact'.

This conference was declared of legislative interest by the Chamber of Deputies and Senators of the Province of Buenos Aires.